WORK & WELLBEING

Winslade House is open to businesses of all sizes with room for you to grow.

The convenient location, just minutes from Exeter City Centre make this a compelling choice for businesses of any size looking to relocate to state-of-the-art premises. Our flexible solutions are aimed to reduce risk in uncertain times. On-site leisure facilities and high-end restaurants are designed to enhance professional wellbeing.

LEISURE & LIFESTYLE

Professional athletes managing our fitness facilities to caring childcare, brewing baristas to bustling business clubs are just some of the ways we are putting lifestyle at the heart of the vibrant new Winslade Park community.

The tranquil and elegant location offers a whole host of facilities for those who love the great outdoors including nature walks, trail runs, tennis courts and ample outdoor hideaways for picnic spots. There is even a beautiful cricket pitch.

Beyond the outstanding facilities, a varied programme of events designed to appeal to all residents will ensure Winslade Park adds real value to the wider community.

35-hectares of parkland create the ultimate setting for leisure alongside living and working, with ample spaces for exercise and relaxation.

TOM JOHNSON LIFESTYLE

Winslade Park's Wellbeing Director is former England and Exeter Chiefs professional rugby player Tom Johnson. His exclusive lifestyle and wellness brand, Tom Johnson Lifestyle, will support the superb on-site facilities in the £5M leisure complex.

High-end facilities include a boutique personal training fitness studio 'Number 6', a swimming pool, smart cafés and bars, and a range of carefully selected retail outlets and services.

A sports pavilion, sports pitches and areas to relax and recharge continue the wellness and balance theme across the park.

Setting a new standard in how we collectively live and work, Winslade Park is a lifestyle choice for businesses looking for sophisticated offices, for country living close to the thriving city of Exeter, and for joining a wellness community with outstanding health and wellbeing facilities.
